TARIFF IN SENATE

Duty on Lumber Increased to $1.50 Per Thousand Feet.

PARTY LINES OBLITERATED

South Wanted Protection for Her Product While Treeless Northwest Demanded Cheaper Lumber. Florida Gets Protection.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 23.—In unexpectedly short order the Senate today took up and disposed of the lumber schedule and then, entering upon the discussion of pineapples, put behind it the provision regulating the rates of duty on that article. Calling up the tariff bill immediately after convening at 10 o'clock, Mr. Aldrich asked that the lumber schedule should receive first attention. He had no sooner taken his seat than Senator McCumber who, in the interest of the treeless Northwest, has been a persistent advocate of free lumber, arose and presented an amendment reducing the finance committee's rate of $1.50 per 1,000 on sawed lumber to the House rate of $1 per 1,000. This was generally recognized as a test proposition, as sawed lumber has been the bone of contention from the beginning. The North Dakota Senator did not find it worth while to enter into any argument in support of his provision but permitted it to go directly to a vote. The result was against him and was another triumph for the Aldrich rates, the vote standing 24 in favor of and 44 against the reduced rate. Party lines were so entirely destroyed on this vote that if one should be called upon to judge from the ballot alone, he would never be able to determine that the tariff is a party issue.

Another test came on the proposition to make a rate of $1.25 per 1,000 on lumber with a general change in the differentials and on this vote the finance committee was also liberally supported. The entire wood schedule, making reductions of about 25 per cent. from the present law rates, and increasing the House rates of the pending bill to about the same extent, was then agreed to.

The sailing was not so smooth when it came to pineapples. The contention in this connection was for higher rates and came from Democratic sources. The objectors in this case were Senators Taliaferro and Fletcher, of Florida. The House had fixed a duty of 8 cents per cubic foot on pineapples in barrels and of $8 per 1,000, but the Senate committee on finance reduced this rate to 7 cents and $7 respectively, thus restoring the provisions of the Dingley law.

Mr. Taliaferro presented an amendment restoring the House rate of $8 per 1,000, but changing the other portions of the provision so as to require the payment of half a cent a pound for pineapples in bulk. The contention was for and against this increase, and the fight was mainly between the Florida Senators, representing a pineapple producing State, and Senators Smith and Rayner, of Maryland, in whose State there are large pineapple canning establishments. Disavowing all championship of the canners, the Maryland Senators made a strenuous fight on general principles against the increase of the duty. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Raynor charged the Republican party with bad faith in promising to lower tariff duties.

The first vote on the lumber schedule was on an amendment by Senator McCumber proposing the rate of $1 per 1,000 on sawed lumber instead of the $1.50 decided upon by the finance committee. The committee was sustained 44 to 24. From the beginning

THE ANGOLA [illegible]AMP LAND

Option to New York Par[illegible] Confirmed by Board of Educa[illegible]—Oil Tests—Telephone Hea[illegible]s. National Guard.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 23.—Final contracts for an option to John A. Stewart and others of New York, for the Angola Bay Swamp lands in Duplin and Pender counties, was signed by the State Board of Education today, the company to develop the property through drainage for agricultural purposes.

A corps of engineers are now surveying for a railroad to Burgaw or some other advantageous point on the Atlantic Coast Line. Later in the Fall experts as to soil and system of drainage will get the drainage work under way.

The Oil Inspection Committee of the State Board of Agriculture, after a supplementary hearing today, decided to change the method of the inspection of illuminating oils, operative July 1st, from the Elliott Cup system to the method used by the United States government, known as the 110 F. heat test. This concession was secured through the efforts of ex-Governor C. B. Aycock representing the Independent Oil Company, and James H. Pou, representing the Standard.

FAILED WITH EMPTY POCKETS.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 23.—Marshall Bell, a retired business man of Newburgh, N. Y., filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court today stating his liabilities as $113,000 with no assets. Mr. Bell, in his petition, declared that on the night of November 13, 1908, he lost $110,000 at faro in a gambling house in this city. He gave notes to this amount but now repudiates them as a gambling debt.

Fire was discovered shortly before midnight in the five story building at 200 Fulton street, occupied by S. B. Powell & Co., wholesale druggists in New Orleans. A general alarm was responded to by the fire department.

BARACA WORKERS ADJOURN

Officers and District Secretaries Are Elected—World-wide Conference at Asheville Well Attended and Successful.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Asheville, N. C., June 23.—With the election of officers and the hearing of the claims of Omaha, Neb., Jamestown, N. Y., and Birmingham, Ala., for the next convention, the World-wide Baraca Philathea Union, which has been in session here since last Saturday, came to an end today. No choice of meeting place for the next convention was made as this was left to the executive committee.

Marshall A. Hudson, of Syracuse, was re-elected president and the following were elected vice president: R. N. Sims, of Raleigh, N. C.; Rev. Charles McKenzie, of Johnstown, N. Y.; Rev. H. M. Hamilt, D. D., of Nashville; G. E. Winslade, of Omaha; E. H. Conibear, of Dallas. Rev. Frank Anderson, of Millville, N. J., was elected treasurer; L. E. Appleby, of San Antonio, general secretary; A. S. Hampton, of Detroit, corresponding secretary; W. G. Monk, of Syracuse, recording secretary; Roland L. Walker, of Kansas City, junior secretary; F. Mitchell Arnold, of Jacksonville, Ill., secretary of secret service.

The district secretaries were elected as follows: First district, B. F. Whitford, of Stamford, Conn.; second, A. S. Hopkins, of Mechanicsville, N. Y.; third, A. B. Caldwell, of Atlanta; fourth, George E. Hayes, of Louisville; fifth, not filled; sixth, Rev. B. F. Fellman, of Omaha; seventh, L. P. Leavell, of Oxford, Miss.; eighth, A. M. Melles, of San Centre, Minn.; ninth, James Edmunds, of McMinnville, Ore.

FIREMEN CRITICISED

Charged Them With Attempting to Intimidate Arbitrators.

PUBLIC OPINION IS FACTOR

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., June 23.—Charging that the firemen were trying to intimidate the arbitrators, Major Cummins, representing the Georgia Railroad before the Arbitration Commission, objected strongly this afternoon to the introduction of any testimony as to the condition of public opinion upon the merits of the strike. The firemen had introduced Mayor Brand, of Lithonia. It was at Lithonia that much disorder occurred and several negro firemen were severely whipped. It was proposed to have Mayor Brand tell not only of past assaults upon the negro firemen, but to give it as his opinion that if the firemen were restored to the cab by the decision of the Board of Arbitration, the people would resort to violence again.

"This is gross contempt of the Commission," said Cummings, trembling with anger. "If such testimony be admitted we had as well close down our courts and let mob violence rule. The contention here now is simply that the firemen in effect say: 'We may be wrong in our contest, but even if we are, and you gentlemen decide against us, the people of Georgia will rise up in mobs and overrule you.' I think this is a libel upon the good people of this State. I most seriously object to the admission of such testimony.

Attorney Reuben Arnold argued spiritedly that the board was not a court; that it should permit a wide latitude and in its award, disregarding such testimony as was not considered proper. He claimed, however, that the Commission had a right, nay, a duty, to hear such evidence and to consider it, as it affected the safety of all other employes and even passengers.

Before Major Cummins interrupted, Brand had declared that the people along the line of the Georgia Railroad were only permitting the negro firemen to work now because they were assured that the arbitrators would decide in favor of the white employes. He was confident that if the Commission decided in favor of the negroes, the people would never permit the blacks to run.

The arbitrators, upon the conclusion of Arnold's argument, went into executive session, at the end of which they announced that they would exclude all testimony as to public opinion as not relevant.

"I may say," said Mr. Herbert, "that the decision is by unanimous consent." This was a severe blow to the firemen. But they went on gamely, offering cumulative testimony as to the unfitness of the negro as a fireman.

About 15 mayors and peace officers of towns along the Georgia Railroad, who had been summoned, were notified they might go home. The decision probably will shorten the hearing.

Witness after witness swore that negroes were too incompetent and stupid to be safe firemen, and that the Georgia Railroad did not hold them to accountability for the violation of the ordinary rules of safety. The witnesses gave names and dates to substantiate their statements. It also developed that when an engine came in from a run with a negro fireman on the box and was sent out with a white man firing, the white man had to put his clothes in the box used by the negro and had to drink from the same cup which the negro had used.

Major Cummins asked that Vice President Ball, of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Engineermen be recalled. He asked Ball if at the last convention of the order at Columbus, Ohio, the Brotherhood had not agreed that it was time to eliminate the negro from the cab in all the South. Ball said he did not recall.

Several witnesses said that negro firemen cannot be depended upon to flag as they will not go back the 3,700 feet required by the rules. They also testified afresh to the negroes tendency to go to sleep every time he sits down, unless he is watched.

WRIGHT BROS. FLYING MACHINE

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 23.—The Wright brothers were today granted an extension of time of thirty days in which to complete their official trials for the Government, but they are losing no time in completing their flying machine. The first preliminary fight probably will be made on Friday. The motor was installed today and the finishing touches put upon the machine. Tomorrow the starting apparatus will be set up and the motor will be tested.

MINE A DEATH TRAP

Seventeen Persons Killed in Fearful Explosion.

HEROIC WORK OF RESCUERS

Sixteen of the Victims Were Foreigners—Occurred at Wehrum, Pa. Bodies Recovered—Sixteen Injured by Explosion.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Wehrum, Pa., June 23.—As the result of an explosion of gas in Mine No. 4, of the Lackawanna Coal & Coke Company shortly after 7 o'clock this morning 17 miners were killed and 16 injured. With the exception of one, those killed were foreigners. With few exceptions those injured were Americans. It was stated all would probably be recovered.

The mine has only been operating two days each week, Tuesday and Friday. Those in the mine today had entered the shaft for their daily allowance of coal for family use.

Grouped at the slope entrance of the mine just before the explosion were several Italians. When the terrible subterraneau upheaval of rock and gas spouted skyward these Italians were caught. Terribly burned and maimed they rushed about the settlement crying for aid.

The first man to reach the surface was A. L. Johnson, son of the superintendent. He is one of the very few seriously injured.

Supt. Johnson called for volunteers to enter the mine. In the volunteer ranks stood several women. These were ordered back. With wet handkerchiefs tied over their faces the first squad of the relief party started down the shaft. Of the eight who started four came back with their senses. The others, overcome with blackdamp, were pulled to the surface with ropes.

A second and a third party entered only to be driven back by the deadly gasses hissing and spouting in the lower levels.

Oxygen, sent by the Cambria Steel Works, aided the searchers and with safety helmets, a fourth rescue party succeeded in bringing 12 bodies to the surface.

Late in the afternoon five more bodies were recovered. They were found huddled together in the lower left heading where they had died in an evident effort to reach the main shaft.

BRUNSWICK MISSION WORK

Sabbath School Convention Meets on the 21st of July.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Phoenix, N. C., June 23.—Rev. Eugene Black Carr, evangelist in charge of Presbyterian work in Brunswick county, is completing arrangements for the annual meeting of the Sabbath School Convention which will be held at New Hope Church on Wednesday, July 21st, and promises to be a gathering of much interest.

Besides a good attendance of Brunswick people it is expected that quite a few from the Wilmington Presbyterian churches will attend the convention and take part in the exercises. In order to provide for the Presbyterians from Wilmington and Southport the steamer Whitlock will make a special trip, leaving Wilmington at 6 A. M., on the 21st. An address will be made by Rev. W. M. Sikes, of Burgaw, N. C., and there will be an interesting programme carried out, featured by talks and reports on home mission work.

The Brunswick people are looking forward to the convention with great pleasure and assure those who attend a most pleasant day. A basket dinner will be served at the church. Delegates from Wilmington and other points who come on the steamer Whitlock will be met at the landing with conveyances. The steamer will make the return trip on the same day.

MARRIAGE AT CLINTON

(Special Star Telegram.)

Clinton, N. C., June 23.—An interesting social event was the marriage here this evening, in the Presbyterian church, of Miss Isabelle Pigford to Mr. Isham F. Faison. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. L. Clark at 5:30 o'clock and was witnessed by a large gathering of local and visiting friends. Mr. I. M. Lane, of Faison, was best man, and Miss Lovil Pigford, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Ernest Warren, of Edenton, was was dame of honor, Miss Mary Medearis, of Winston-Salem, sang "I Love You Truly" and the wedding march was played by Miss Eliza Pearsall.

Supper was served to the bridal party immediately after the marriage at the home of Mrs. Virginia Pigford, mother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Faison went to Wrightsville Beach where they will spend several days. The bride is one of Clinton's most lovable and highly accomplished young women and the groom is a successful young business man, of Faison, N. C.

GOULD TRIAL NEARING END

Session Lasted Until 11 O'clock Last Night—More Evidence Favorable to Mrs. Gould—Farnum's Deposition.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

NeNw York, June 23.—Counsel for Katherine Clemmons Gould, who is suing Howard Gould for separation and $250,000 a year alimony, labored long and late today and it was 11 o'clock tonight when court adjourned. This, the first nocturnal session since the trial began more than three weeks ago, was granted by Justice Dowling in order to clear up the remaining testimony in rebuttal by the plaintiff's witnesses, excepting perhaps Mrs. Gould herself, if she should so desire to testify. But after tonight's session Clarence J. Shearn announced that he still has two witnesses to call. The case will go on tomorrow when a deposition of Dustin Farnum, the actor, who has figured so prominently in the case, will be submitted in Mrs. Gould's behalf.

The testimony submitted and depositions read for Mrs. Gould today and tonight, taken as a whole, cover in rebuttal all the incidents of the various motor trips that she is alleged to have taken to cities in which Dustin Farnum was playing. Also it was sought to prove that Mrs. Gould drank moderately, principally with her meals, that her language was never other than what it should have been; that she saw Dustin Farnum only in the company of others and that there was nothing out of the ordinary in her attitude toward him.

Mary Conlin, a maid to Mrs. Elijah Sells, Mrs. Gould's cousin, by marriage and one of her guests on the motor trip to Philadelphia, swore that none of the party wore dust coats. Witnesses for Mrs. Gould had previously testified that a mans' linen dust coat had been found in Mrs. Gould's room at the Bellevue-Stratford.

Thirty-six witnesses in rebuttal have thus far been called and it is expected that Mrs. Gould will again take the stand tomorrow in the hope of weakening her husband's counter charges. With the exception of Mrs. Sells, who testified during the day and the deposition of her daughter, Marjorie, which was read at night the testimony for the most part was that of servants and employes of various shops.

Miss Sells' narrative bore out that of her mother, favoring Mrs. Gould as to her association with Dustin Farnum and testifying as to her sobriety at all times.

TAFT PLEDGES HELP.

Favors the American Merchant Marine—Bill to Congress Soon.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 23.—Indicating his presence and sympathy with the cause of the Merchant Marine League espoused, Mr. Taft evoked loud applause and much enthusiasm at a dinner given tonight by officials and members of the League, when he declared he would do all in his power to assist in the rehabilitation of the American Merchant Marine.

The President declared that something must be done and that immediately to establish an American Merchant Marine and that he would do everything he could to bring this about.

A new bill has been prepared and will be introduced in the House on Thursday by Representative Humphrey, of Washington, and in the Senate by some friend of ship subsidy, probably by Senator Gallinger.

SCOUT CARS AT WASHINGTON

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, June 23.—Many prominent officials and othef prominent men were present today at a meeting in this city to consider the subject of good roads. The occasion was the reception tendered to two "scout" cars which are seeking the best route for a long distance endurance run next Fall between New York and Atlanta, Ga. At 1 o'clock the "scouting" party was received at the White House by President Taft. The good roads meeting followed.

One of the principal speakers was President W. W. Finley, of the Southern Railway, who declared that the development of the motor vehicle had given a great incentive to the good roads movement throughout the United States. Aside from the importance of good roads to the automobilists, Mr. Finley said, they have a highly important social aspect for the farmer as well as for the owner of the automobile.

"They broaden his range of vision," he said, "and bring him into closer touch with the world at large. They facilitate the rural free delivery, bringing him his letters promptly and placing on his table the weekly newspaper from the nearby town and the daily from the nearest city."

Wilson, N. C., June 23.—In a well played game this afternoon the Sailors for the third time in succession went down in defeat before the Tobacconists. Big Chief Ferrall was in fine form, striking out nine men and allowing only six hits.

Armstrong's timely single in the 8th which turned out to be a three-bagger broke up the game as Holt and Miller came trotting home, making a total of three runs. Features, Cooper's running catch in the seventh and the batting of Ferrall, Suitor and Hemp with snappy playing by both teams.

Hemp, the very first Sailor lad to face Mr. Ferrell, whipped out a single to right and was sacrificed by Nichols, but Brodie flew out to catcher and Hemp was caught trying third. Suitor led his team with a single to centre and was sacrificed by Cooper and scored on Yerkes' hit past short. Miller then singled to centre, but Byrd and Holt flew to centre and left.

In the second session Sharp singled to centre after Smith was out second to first and Levy had fanned. Jayes followed with a clean hit to centre and Sharp went to third, Jayes taking second on throw home to catch Sharp. Conn was up and about out when Sharp was caught attempting a squeeze play. Armstrong and Mills were out second to first and Ferrell hit to short who threw wild to first, but Ferrell was out with designs on second.

In the third Conn and Kite fanned, Hemp flew out to centre. Suitor led Wilson's third with a single to centre and was sacrificed by Cooper, Yerkes being given transportation, but Miller's hit to third was turned into a pretty double retiring Suitor and Yerkes.

In the fourth Nichols, Brodie and Smith were out from the infield, the latter fanning. It was the same for Wilson except a pass to Holt in the fourth. In the fifth, Levy was out, short to first; Sharp fanned; Jayes drew a pass and stole second but Conn was out at first unassisted. Wilson got a near-score in the fifth when Ferrell led off with a double to left and was sacrificed by Suitor. Cooper hit to Smith who threw the "Big Chief" out at home. Cooper stole second and Yerkes was given a pass but Miller forced him at second.

In the sixth Wilmington saved herself a shut-out when Kite and Hemp led off with singles to right and centre and after Nichols had fanned, Brodie hit past short. Kite being thrown out at home; Smith was up and Hemp scored on a wild pitch, Brodie taking up on second. Smith ended the hope by going out third to first. Holt got a single with one down in the sixth but Armstrong and Mills flew to left.

In the seventh Jayes singled to right after Levy had fanned and Sharp flew to centre, but Conn retired the side by flying to right. For Wilson Ferrell fanned and Suitor flew to short. Cooper drew a pass but was caught trying second.

Miller made the trouble for Wilmington in the eighth when after Yerkes was out short to first, he pealed the hide off one of Levy's finest for an extra base to centre and went to third on Byrd's long fly to centre; Holt walked and Armstrong was rude enough to the Sailor guests of the Tobacco town to lace one to left garden for three cushions, scoring Miller and Holt. Mills stopped the procession by flying to third.

Wilmington only figured in the ninth. Brodie was out, short to first and Smith and Levy fanned.

COTTON SEED VALUES INCREASING.

The near approach to the annual meeting of the North Carolina Cotton Seed Crushers' Association, to be held at Charlotte, reminds us of some statistics about this industry. Take for instance, the census year 1900 with a crop of nearly 10,000,000 bales of cotton, when the Southern cotton oil mills crushed 2,500,000 tons of seed which yielded something like 93,000,000 gallons of crude cotton seed oil besides 900,000 tons of oil cake and cotton seed meal. For cotton seed alone in 1900, the enormous aggregate of $25,000,000 was distributed among the farmers of the South, not to mention the additional millions of money which came to the South for the crude oil, cotton seed cake and cotton sed meal turned out at our cotton oil mills.

We use the above figures because they were taken from the last United States census compendium, but since then there has been a tremendous growth in the business, so that cotton seed crushing has become one of the most important of the South's industries.

Within the memory of men not very old, cotton seed was a waste product that was thrown out to rot, and it is only within the last 25 years that the business of manufacturing this waste developed into large proportions.

The first cotton seed mills in this part of the South were built in the seventies, but the first attempts in the United States to extract crude oil from cotton seed were made at Natchey, Miss., as early as 1834, and at New Orleans in 1874. While the business was being developed many failures were made but the efforts of the discoveries and inventors resulted finally in success, so that by 1880 the cotton seed oil business aggregated about $8,000,000. Now compare that with the value of this year's crushing, estimated at $40,000,000.

The value of the cotton plant to the South continues to grow, one of its latest uses being to turn the old stalks into paper. Now comes the Savannah News to tell us that we are to extract still further new values from our cotton seed oil. Says our Savannah contemporary:

"The Morning News in its local columns yesterday called attention to the fact that Savannah is to have a new industry, an industry which, there are reasons for thinking, will attain such proportions in a very short time that it will employ a large capital and give employment to many hands. The industry is the manufacture of a new paint from waste in the production of cotton seed oil. It seems that this paint gives such satisfaction that the market for it is steadily enlarging. The Southern Cotton Oil Company is so much encouraged that it is preparing to manufacture the paint on a large scale. Its plant is being enlarged and such other steps are being taken as will make the undertaking a success.

"From information at hand it seems reasonable to say that in the course of a year or two this paint industry will be one of the largest in the city, if not in the state. The paint in question is so much cheaper than other paint, and for the purpose used is so much superior, that there is every reason to believe that the demand for it will be very large."

THE NORFOLK AND SOUTHERN.

The Star is gratified to learn that the prospects of the Norfolk & Southern Railroad have improved and that its affairs are being rapidly straightened out. A receivership for this North Carolina and Virginia system was one of the results of the disastrous Roosevelt panic, and it is hoped at an early day the property will be turned over by the receivers to the company under its re-adjustment plans.

Mr. E. T. Lamb, the new general manager of the Norfolk & Southern receivers, a few days ago visited Wilmington, Goldsboro, Raleigh and other North Carolina points ,and during his trip he has accomplished a great deal in straightening out matters of importance in connection with his lines of railway in this State. He announces that as rapidly as possible contemplated improvements will be made in the service of the Norfolk & Southern, and that will be good news in Eastern North Carolina.

The Raleigh News and Observer, in noting the visit of General Manager Lamb to Raleigh on Monday, says Mr. Lamb declares that "in Eastern North Carolina he found conditions excellent and that there is a great future for all that section." The extreme tidewater region of the State depends on the Norfolk & Southern for a large degree of its future development ,and as the territory reached by the lines of that system is in a prosperous condition and offers numerous resources for development, there is every reason to believe that the Norfolk & Southern has fine opportunities ahead of it.

DIVERSIFY OUR AGRICULTURE.

The Wadesboro Ansonian makes a good point when it says:

"The man who is buying meat at 14 cents, lard at 15 cents, flour at $4 per sack and corn at $1.10, and depending on 10-cent cotton, probably feels that these very necessary articles might be raised cheaper at home. At any rate it does seem that there would be more peace of mind and more satisfaction generally by pursuing this route."

At those prices the farmer can make his own supplies at a profit. The fact is, he will find that when prices are to be compared at all times with what he gets for cotton and what it costs to make it, he will find that it will pay to diversify his crops. If the farmer makes a profit on his cotton he pays it out for what he eats, and generally fails to make both ends meet. Let the farmers produce their own corn, hay, oats, meat and other home supplies, in addition to raising cotton, tobacco and peanuts which form the principal crops in North Carolina according to the respective sections of the State.

Senator Aldrich, it is said, feels very kindly towards Senator LaFollette, notwithstanding the fact that the Wisconsin Senator exhausted his vocabulary and winded himself in his assaults on the Rhode Island Senator and his tariff bill. However, Senator Aldrich knew all along that the Wisconsin Senator was the one to come out at the little end of the horn and consequently could be indulged.

Mrs. Katherine Clemmons Gould testified in her divorce suit that no woman of her station can dress decently on less than $40,000 a year. Women of Mrs. Gould's "station" will please tag themselves so we won't be taken in for about all our year's salary.

Mr. Patten who cornered wheat declares that not enough wheat is produced to supply the demand. Apt as not a big lot of the supply is used up by folks who make Old Rye out of it.

"Clothes do not make the woman" an exchange remarks. Hereunto we add the observation that in a great many instances "Women Do Not Make the Clothes."

"We prefer to fight in the open," says an exchange. Well, get in the open but you'll be lonesome if you expect us to come in and cater to your preferences.

The world is so full of deceit that you can't ever tell when your relations really like to have you drop in on them.

It's about time for machine politics to slip a cog.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—A writer in a current monthly says that the harem is going out of style in Turkey. But is it doing so elsewhere—that is the question.—Norfolk Landmark.

—The Georgian notion that the only way to keep the white race up is to keep the black race down, does not flatter the Caucasian.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

—Wouldn't it be funny if Mr. Taft should in a week of negotiation get the government control of corporations that Mr. Roosevelt talked about for seven years and never did get?—Baltimore Sun.

—Neither Webster nor Clay nor Calhoun ever exercised such power in the United States Senate as is possessed by Nelson W. Aldrich. Is Aldrich a giant or has the Senate deteriorated?—Chicago Record-Herald.

—Clairvoyants, palmists and fortune tellers are now outlawed in Texas. Beginning last week, they are now in the category of vagrants and will have to move out of the State. Formerly they were licensed, and for years they have been doing a flourinshing business in all of the Texas cities. But, while these people are blacklisted, political prophets continue to flourish in the Lone Star State.—Cavannah Morning News.

—The automobile fever has struck the residents of the Cheyenne River Indian reservation and a number of the mixed bloods are investing in gas wagons with which to do their traveling. To emphasize further the changed conditions a number of the younger Indians are taking to the camera and the typewriter, and the "Indian ways" of today stand out in startling contrast to their ways of even a quarter of a century ago, when the white men first came in numbers to this part of the State.—Minneapolis Journal.

—The Charlotte Observer tries to turn our suggestion that the girls ought to be very careful about whom they marry to very good account by saying: "Just so. We suggest that as many of them as possible marry North Carolina boys." There is some merit in what our contemporary says. We do not know the "boys" of any State that need so much the refining influences of South Carolina educated young women as the boys of North Carolina. This would be consigning our girls, however, to missionary work, for which some of them are not especially fitted.—Charleston News and Courier.

—Our Raleigh correspondent a day or so ago gave an account of the commutation by Governor Kitchin of the sentence imposed upon a man who had been convicted of bigamy. It was a peculiar case. The man, who was of weak or unsound mind, was made to believe that he had a legal divorce from his first wife. His guide, counselor and pretended friend got six months' work out of him for a certain paper purporting to be legal. If these facts were true, and the bigamist was of such unsound mind as to believe he had acted legally, the man imposing upon him is the one who should serve a term on the chain-gang instead of the poor fellow whose labor for six months he secured by his fraudulent act. Isn't this a case of obtaining something of value by false pretense? If not so, it is a pity there is not some law under which he can be indicted and made to suffer for his conduct. At any rate he should be made to pay his dupe for the six months' labor out of which he cheated him.—Charlotte Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—George—Grace is looking as young as ever, isn't she? Gladys—Yes; but she says it costs more every year.—Chicago News.

—"How far back can you trace your ancestry?" "I haven't got time to try. It's all I can do to keep track of my posterity."—Cleveland Leader.

—"I see that our friend still entertains the idea of running for Congress." "Not exactly," answered Farmer Corntossel. "The idea entertains him."—Washington Star.

—"Everybody ought to marry for love." "That's all right in theory," "Well?" "The trouble is that most of us can't afford it."—Louisville Courier Journal.

—"There goes a man whose head has not been turnd by success," "That's the kind of man I like to see!" "Oh, I don't know; you see he has never succeeded."—Houston Post.

—"Maria, is there a single good thing about these great wide hats the women are wearing?" "Yes, John, there is; when two women meet they can't kiss each other now."—Chicago Tribune.

—Nell—She's a very strong swimmer. I wonder if she ever saved anybody's life. Belle—Well, Cholly Sapheddo said he couldn't live without her, and she has promised to marry him.—Philadelphia Record.

—"Are young people thrown together much out here?" asked the matron with a marriageable daughter. "You bet," replied the proprietor of the summer hotel. "We're extra well provided with hammocks."—Kansas City Times.

—Raleigh News and Observer: Hon. M. L. Shipman, Commissioner of Labor and Printing, has returned to the city from Rochester, N. Y., where he attended the meeting of the International Association of Labor Bureaus, and results show that he "did things" while in Rochester. Mr. Shipman was one of the speakers at the meeting and he did a big thing for North Carolina in capturing the next annual meeting of the association for this State. He extended the invitation to meet in Hendersonville on behalf of the mayor, board of trade of that place, and by Governor Kitchin on behalf of the State, and Hendersonville was chosen, the date to be fixed later. The Rochester papers tell of Mr. Shipman being honored by the association which elected him chairman of the executive committee, a position of much importance. The association is an influential one, with representatives from the various States and from the Canadian provinces, being an international organization. It is a feather in the cap of the South and North Carolina for the next meeting to come to this State and Mr. Shipman is to be congratulated on the fine work he did in securing it.

—Charlotte, June 22.—One of the biggest sales of cotton ever made in this part of the State was pulled off last week when Mr. S. M. Jones, of Chester, S. C., near here, sold to Geo. McFadden Bros., the big importers, through their representative, Mr. J. G. Barron, 372 bales of cotton at 11 cents, the price for the lot being $18,500. This cotton was grown on Mr. Jones' big Tirzah place in York county, which he recently sold to Mr. E. A. Willis, of Lynchburg, Va. Mr. Jones has in storage at Rock Hill 179 bales, which he will sell at some future time, and which he raised on the plantation that he recently sold to Mr. W. G. Hughes. Mr. Jones has been one of the most successful farmers in all the State, but has decided to draw in his business, hence the sale of these magnificent wealth-producing plantations.

RAW DRUGS.

Castor Oil Comes as Pretty Little Brown and Black Beans.

Upon going into a pharmacy and looking over the mysterious jars and bottles and boxes that line the shelves did you ever wonder where on earth all of the drugs came from and how they appeared before they were ground up and made into oils or dried or pulverized or crystallized into queer shaped lumps? Each jar and box seems to hide some secret which you immediately become curious to solve. How many different lands do they represent? And, after they leave the jars that hold them now, what are they made into?

Who, for example, would connect a great pile of dry, thin twigs, neatly tied into small bundles, with sarsaparilla? These twigs are the creeping roots and rootlets of a prickly shrub that grows in Jamaica, and they are worth from 10 to 50 cents a pound.

Somewhat similar in appearance is ipecacuanha, which also comes to us in dry twigs, which are part of the trailing root of a plant found in the damp forests of Brazil.

These roots receive no preparation save drying before they are shipped off to the United States. They are packed in large sacks, and the workmen who open the bales must beware of breathing the pungent, irritating dust given off, which is productive of unpleasant results if incautiously inhaled.

Castor oil, too, is hard to recognize in the pretty little brown beans, spotted with black and with polished skins, that arrive in bags from India. They look far too attractive to suggest the much hated dose of our early days.

Aloes, the base of many nauseous medicines, may be seen in its crude form as a solid mass resembling brown sealing wax, packed in heavy wooden boxes, from which it is chipped out in flakes with a chisel and hammer.

It is of different qualities and prices, according to whether it comes from Arabia, Socotra or the West Indies, and may bring any sum from $4 to $45 per hundreweight. Aloes is the juice of the big fleshy leaves of the plant of that name. This juice is pressed or evaporated from the leaves and poured into chests or kegs in a semifluid state, hardening presently into a solid block. Not infrequently it is inclosed in the dry skins of monkeys and in this strange form brought to market.

One of the most interesting of drugs is opium, both on account of its awful potency and by reason of its great value. A case of opium, about 225 pounds, is worth $400 roughly. The case is of rough deal lined with tin and contains a number of soft, dark lumps, like large handfuls of dough packed very closely together in a quantity of dry, chaffy seeds.

The opium which reaches America is of two qualities, one for medicine, the other for smoking, and comes from Persia and Asia Minor, China and India.—St. Louis Republic.

Very Impressive.

Nouveau Riche is at times an amusing person. Said one of these exotics the other day—he was a commuter—just as the train was moving from the station:

"Er—John."

"Yessir!" answered the valet.

"I—I think, after all, I would like the asparagus served as an entree tonight."

And the train moved off amid smothered laughter.—New York Times.

Tact.

Harry—What in thunder did you ask that fellow what time it was for when you carry a watch that is always right on the notch? Dick—I merely wanted to give him an excuse to exhibit his watch.—Boston Transcript.

And Enjoyed It.

Ethel—Didn't it seem an age from the time you were engaged till you got married? Maud—Yes, but Jack and I managed to squeeze through it.—London Tatler.

A happy heart is better than a full purse.—German Proverb.

To Ailing Women

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Wilmington.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen and worse troubles quickly follow. This is often the true cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache ,sideache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that cures sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get better, and health will return when the kidneys are well. Let a Wilmington woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. J. E. Marshburn, 516 Castle St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I suffered a great deal from backache and pains through my loins. Headaches were also frequent and the kidney secretions passed irregularly. I always felt tired and languid and little like doing my housework. Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store, cured me and improved my health. I am willing to have my name used in endorsing such a reliable remedy."

For sale by all dearers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

—Mrs. E. Peschau and little grandson, Charles Albert, have returned after a visit of several weeks to friends at Charleston, S. C., and at Fayetteville with Mrs. Peschau's daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Stedman.

—Herbert McClammy, Esq., returned to the city yesterday morning from Charlotte, where he appeared for the prosecution in the Biggers trial. Mr. McClammy made the opening argument to the jury, concluding late Tuesday afternoon.

—Rev. G. M. Fomby, of Clinton, was in the city yesterday. He says that his Rescue Home work near Clinton is prospering and that the feeling of the community towards the institution has been reversed since the recent unpleasant incident at Clinton.

—Captain J. M. Walker and family left yesterday afternoon for Saluda, N. C., where they will remain until October 1st in the interest of Captain Walker's health. Captain J. T. Garvey will act as station master at the union station during the absence of Captain Walker.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at R. R. Bellamy's.

—Before Justice Bornemann at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon Ella Hunter, colored, was given a hearing on the charge of slandering her sister-in-law, Carrie Hunter. The three witnesses for the State testified that Carrie had not spoken in disrespectful terms of her beloved sister-in-law and the justice had to dismiss the action, taxing the prosecutor with the costs. The negro women are very much at outs which fact was manifested so strongly at the trial that the "judge" threatened to send them all to jail for contempt of court.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Special Meeting This Morning to Consider Telephone Matter.

President J. A. Taylor has called a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held in the rooms of the organization at 11 o'clock this morning for the purpose of hearing a report from the executive committee relative to the proposed increase in the rates of residence telephones by the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company. The entire matter will be laid before the Chamber and such action as deemed best will be taken by the body. The hearing on the rate matter will be before the State Corporation Commission in Raleigh tomorrow.

President Taylor urges a large attendance of the members of the Chamber as the matter is of vital concern to practically all the people of the city.

The meeting this morning was called as the result of a conference yesterday morning between members of the executive committee and representatives of the telephone company, including Mr. M. B. Spier, of Charlotte, division commercial superintendent. Since the conference with the telephone people it is hard to foretell just what the Chamber of Commerce will do in the matter. It is possible that at the meeting today the officers of the telephone company will be able to convince the members of the Chamber that the proposed increase is reasonable and just and should be submitted to by its patrons in this city. The result will be awaited with considerable interest by desidence subscribers in Wilmington.

ORDINATION SERVICE SUNDAY

Mr. N. C. Duncan to be Made Deacon in Episcopal Church.

The clergy of the Episcopal church of the Diocese of Eastern North Carolina, who are guests of Bishop Robert Strange at a "Retreat" on Wrightsville Beach, are having a delightful and profitable time. Though taking ample time to enjoy the surf and the salt air they are working steadily on plans for the progress of the church.

Their number is to be augmented by the ordination of Mr. N. C. Duncan Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The ordination will take place in St. John's Episcopal Church, and all the clergymen at the "Retreat" will come to the city Sunday morning and participate in the service. The members of the church in this city have the rare privilege of such a gathering in their midst and especially so at a service of ordination to the sacred ministry.

SECURED MONEY BY FORGERY

Fred Harris, a Printer, Who Came Here From Atlanta, Arrested for Getting Money on Another's Name—On a Spree.

Charged with forging the name of Mr. R. L. Washburn, a traveling man, to a telegram by which he secured $75 from Mr. Washburn's brother in Shelby, Fred Harris, a printer, about 25 years old, who came here last week from Atlanta, Ga., where he was last employed, was arrested early yesterday afternoon by Chief of Police N. J. Williams at the home of Pauline Thornton, a woman of questionable character, and is being detained at police headquarters, where he is also undergoing treatment for delirium tremens.

Harris stated to the police yesterday afternoon that he could get enough money from a relative in King's Mountain to pay the amount he secured from Washburn and the costs in the case and in the event he does the action will likely be dropped.

Harris worked on the Charlotte Evening News some years ago as ad. man, later working in High Point and Atlanta, Ga., and came to this city one day last week from the latter city. In some way he got acquainted with Mr. R. L. Washburn, a traveling man with temporary headquarters in this city, and learned either from him or some one else that he had a brother living in Shelby. Harris telegraphed to Mr. T. B. Washburn, Shelby, in the name of his brother, stating that he was in trouble here and needed money, signing Mr. R. L. Washburn's name to the telegram. Saturday morning Chief of Police Williams received a telegram from Mr. T. B. Washburn reading as follows: "Please wire me if R. L. Washburn is in trouble," which indicates that Mr. Washburn seriously doubted that his brother was the author of the telegram.

Chief Williams made a number of inquiries during the day, but could find no one that knew R. L. Washburn. Saturday night a well known citizen went to police headquarters and told Chief Williams that a man by the name of Washburn had been to his house to get his son to identify him at the Western Union Telegraph office so he could receive $50 which had been wired him from a brother in Shelby. The gentleman's son was not at home, but he became interested in the matter himself and asked the aid of the chief in helping the young man get his money. After talking over the matter the chief decided to telephone to Shelby and inform Mr. Washburn what he knew of the case. The identity of the young man was not questioned at the time. After learning the condition of the man he supposed was his brother Mr. Washburn asked Chief Williams to notify the telegraph people not to pay the money until the next day.

Sunday afternoon Harris drove up to Chief Williams' home in a carriage and asked that the chief go with him to the telegraph office to get the money. Chief Williams told him that he had nothing to do with the payment of the money. Later in the afternoon one of the telegraph operators telephoned to Chief Williams and asked him if he thought it would be all right to let Washburn have the money. The chief replied that he supposed it would be and the chief later went to the telegraph office and witnessed the transfer of the money, Harris signing the name of R. L. Washburn on the receipt.

Nothing further was heard of the matter until yesterday morning when Mr. R. L. Washburn walked into the office of Chief Williams and stated that he had just received a letter from his brother asking him to please send him a check for $75 covering the amount he sent him last week when he was in trouble. Mr. Washburn said that he had not received any money from his brother, but that he thought he knew who got it and where he could be found. Chief Williams secured the warrant and went to the home of the woman named above and found Harris, whom the chief recognized as the person who signed for the money at the telegraph office.

It seems that Harris received $25 from the same source a day or two before the police began to figure in the case. Harris has been drinking heavily ever since his arrival here and was in a very bad condition when taken to police headquarters, where he was given medical attention.

Sunday School Excursion.

The annual excursion of the Lutheran Sunday School to Carolina Beach yesterday proved an ideal outing, the weather being splendid for a day of recreation and pleasure on the beach and over 300 members of the Sunday School and their friends attended. The steamer Wilmington made four trips and the larger party went down on the 9:15 o'clock boat, while good crowds went on the other two boats in the afternoon. The outing was greatly enjoyed, the features being bathing and baseball, which was principally among the smaller children.

With a Rush Worthy of the Never-Equalled Bargains—

OUR MILL-END SALE IS ON!

The Store had hardly opened Monday when in swept the crowd—such is the magical attraction of the Mill End Sale!

Every one who came bought, not sparingly, but eagerly—enthusiastically—such are the irresistible values of the Mill End Sale!

The present Sale has hardly had a parallel in any of our past Mill End Sales. This year manufacturers had abnormally large accummulations of surpluses, odds and ends and remnants which had to be moved. Consequently, they offered us mightier price inducements than ever to help in their movement. And now we can offer you MORE BARGAINS AND BIGGER BARGAINS than have ever figured in any previous Mill End Sale.

The point to bear in mind—indeed the very essence of the values—is the fact that this is fresh and worthy merchandise—useless to the manufacturer, 'tis true—but as valuable to you as seasonableness, newness and reliability can make it.

YOU WILL NEVER HAVE KNOWN HOW FAR A DOLLAR WILL GO IN THE PURCHASE OF DEPENDABLE GOODS UNTIL YOU HAVE ATTENDED THE MILL END SALE!

SPECIAL 30 MINUTE SALES—These are but a few of the many Bargains that await you here each day.

AGED LADY STRUCK BY CAR

Mrs. Sallie G. Lewis Painfully, Though Not Seriously Injured, While About to Cross Street—No Bones Broken.

While in the act of crossing the street at the intersection of Front and Chesnut streets at 11:25 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Sallie G. Lewis, 74 years old, the venerable mother of Mrs. R. W. Hicks with whom she lived in this city, was struck by northbound car No. 10, Motorman Wyant and Conductor Rivenbark, and painfully, though not seriously, injured. She was caught up by the fender which the motorman lowered just in time to save her from serious injury.

The motorman, who saw Mrs. Lewis as she stepped upon the track, immediately reversed his car and applied the emergency brakes and the car was brought to a standstill within three feet from the point where she was picked up by the fender. Mrs. Lewis had been in Polvogt's store shopping and started out during the heavy rain yesterday morning, carrying an umbrella, which obstructed her view of the approaching street car. On account of her advanced age she is hard of hearing and cannot see very well which facts doubtless had something to do with her not seeing the car.

The accident was witnessed by several persons, who went to the car immediately, and Mrs. Lewis was removed to Polvogt's store, where she was attended by Drs. W. J. H. Bellamy and D. W. Bulluck, being later removed to the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Hicks, 418 South Third street, in the hospital ambulance. It was at first thought that several bones were broken, but after a careful examination the physicians announced that her injuries consisted of a bad gash over the right temple and several more or less painful bruises about the head and body. It was necessary to take several stitches in the wound on the head. Mrs. Lewis was unconscious when picked up and did not regain consciousness until she was carried to her home about an hour later.

Her many friends will be glad to know that the chances are good for her speedy recovery. A telephone message from the residence early last night was to the effect that she was resting as well as could be expected and the indications were that she would spend a comfortable night.

Motorman Wyant was arrested shortly after the accident by Chief of Police N. J. Williams, being released on a $100 bond pending an investigation into the matter. Mr. Wyant is one of the most experienced and capable men in the employ of the Tidewater Power Company and those who witnessed the accident state that no blame attaches to him.

Junior Order Excursion.

The annual excursion of Jeff Davis and George Washington Councils, Junior Order United American Mechanics, will be run to Carolina Beach today, and it is expected that the steamer Wilmington will be crowded on each of its three trips. The members of the local order are anticipating the most enjoyable outing ever given by the Councils. The committee on arrangements is composed of Messrs. B. D. Hamilton, H. W. Howell, Ed Register, T. W. Callahan and E. J. Grimsley from Jeff Davis Council, and Messrs. E. C. Woodbury, W. E. Yopp, Frank Brittain, Charles Hewlett and Harry Farrow from George Washington Council.

Returns With Ben Barge.

Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox arrived on the early train this morning from Jacksonville, Fla., bringing with him the negro Ben Barge, recently arrested there for the murder of a negro named Phifer in this city last Fall. Deputy Sheriff Cox did not have to bother with requisition papers as Barge readily agreed to come to North Carolina where his father in this city has arranged for counsel for him and will make a defense for him when the case is called in Superior Court. Barge was committed to jail this morning without bond until the next term of Superior Court.

Arrives With His Bride.

Mr. Norwood Orrell and bride, nee Miss Jennie Eva Crane, of Marion, S. C., arrived in the city on the early morning train from the South and were most pleasantly received by a host of friends who met them at the station. The groom's brother, Mr. Louis Orrell and Miss Thurber Gore, of this city, and Mr. Clint Smith, of Rocky Mount, were among members of the bridal party.

THE BIGGERS CASE.

Will Probably Reach Jury Today—Argument of Counsel.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Charlotte, N. C., June 23.—The case of W. S. Biggers, charged with the murder of J. G. Hood will hardly reach the jury before Friday morning. Today was given over to arguments of attorneys, Messrs. J. W. Keerans and R. G. Lucas speaking for the defense and Messrs. E. R. Preston and J. A. Parker for the State. There are five other arguments yet to be made, three for the State and two for the defense.

Touching on the plea of insanity Attorney Keerans, for the defense, said that "it was through his dealings with the deceased that the defendant became insane and was brought to the belief that everything that he possessed was to be snatched away from him. He must have suffered the tortures of the damned."

Continuing Mr. Keerans said that the defense did not claim that the defendant was insane on all subjects, but added, "we do claim that he acted under an insane delusion when he killed J. G. Hood."

The State's attorneys declare that the evidence of the experts failed to establish the fact that Biggers was insane when he fired the fatal shot.

BIG MASONIC EVENT TONIGHT

Joint Public Installation of Officers of the Three Local Lodges, Followed by Pretty Dance—The Programme.

Members of the the three Masonic lodges of this city, members of their families and friends, will be in charge of Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, tonight, the occasion being the joint public installation of officers, followed by a big dance tendered by the Tidewater Power Company. Preparations have been made for handling a tremendous crowd to the beach for the event, which will be of an interesting and impressive nature.

The programme will open with an overture by the Lumina Orchestra, following which prayer will be offered by the chaplain, Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. St. John's quartette will sing, "Until the Dawn," after which the installation ceremonies will take place and an address by a prominent member of the order will be delivered. After the singing of "The Bridge" by St. John's quartette the exercises will be concluded by a selection, "The Treaty of Portsmouth," by the Lumina Orchestra.

The officers will be installed by Past Master W. H. Chadbourn and Past Master B. A. Merritt will act as marshal. St. John's quartette is composed of Messrs. W. R. Dosher, first tenor; A. L. Dosher, second tenor; W. A. McGirt, first basso, and W. B. Muse, second basso. Mr. Robert C. DeRosset is chairman of the joint committee on arrangements and Mr. Swift M. Boatwright is secretary. The members of the committee as selected from the three lodges are: St. John's Lodge, No. 1, Messrs. S. M. Boatwright, E. E. David and W. A. McGirt; Wilmington Lodge, No. 319, Geo. S. Boylan, W. E. Yopp and C. F. Nurnberger; Orient Lodge, No. 395, R. C. DeRosset, W. G. Sale and James C. Munds.

The officers who will be installed tonight: St. John's Lodge—C. L. Meister, master; E. P. Bailey, senior warden; R. W. Herring, junior warden; P. B. Bell, treasurer; A. S. Holden, secretary; C. H. ROYAL ARCANUMITE BANQUET

Royal Arcanum Day was appropriately observed by the members of Carolina Council No. 1874 with a delightful banquet in the banquet hall of the Masonic Temple last night, at which a number of toasts were responded to by prominent Arcanumites. The affair was a signal success in every way and the 60-odd present spent a delightful evening.

The doors to the banquet hall were thrown open promptly at 9 o'clock. The opening prayer was offered by Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church. Mr. L. D. Latta, the affable regent of the local council, was toastmaster and he performed his duties with grace and dignity.

The orator of the evening was Mr. S. M. Brinson, of Newbern, one of North Carolina's representatives in the Supreme Council, who made one of the strongest and most eloquent addresses on fraternalism ever heard in this city, speaking particularly of the Supreme Council and its control of the subordinate council. He was introduced by Mr. H. E. Bonitz, grand regent of North Carolina. Mr. Brinson's address was instructive as well as highly entertaining and he received the thanks of the entire assembly for his able discourse. Mr. Brinson is a lawyer of unusual ability and is superintendent of public instruction of Craven county. While in the city he was the guest of Mr. H. E. Bonitz at his cottage on Wrightsville Beach.

Capt. A. L. DeRosset responded to the toast, "Identification," and Dr. M. M. Caldwell spoke on "Medical Examinations of Applicants." Brief impromptu remarks were made also by Messrs. T. L. Vines, J. W. Toomer, R. G. Rankin, Jr., Percy L. Smith, Rev. Wm. E. Cox, pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church, Rev. J. S. Crowley, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian church, and Mr. H. E. Bonitz.

Among the visitors present were Mr. H. P. Little, of Conway, S. C., and Mr. Powell, nephew of Dr. J. W. Powell.

The menu, prepared by Mrs. Munds, to whom the thanks of the banqueters was extended, included: Lamb chops, green peas, potato chips, biscuits, hot rolls, pickles, olives, ice tea, peach cream, cake, cigars and cigarettes.

In his remarks following the address of the Supreme Representative, Mr. Bonitz referred to the phenomenal growth of the local council during the past six months, which has shown a gain of 100 per cent. during that period, and urged the members to exert themselves for a like increase for the remainder of the present year.

The happy occasion came to an end at 10:45 o'clock with the benediction by Rev. Wm. E. Cox.

The committee which had in charge the successful affair was composed of Mr. Percy L. Smith, chairman, and Mr. Robt. G. Rankin, Jr., and Fred Bonitz, Esq.

LING REMAIN FUGITIVE

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 23.—After a day of conflicting statements the district attorney's office and the police department refused tonight to discuss further what progress had been made in the search for Leon Ling, the Chinaman, who is wanted for the murder of Elsie Sigel. Nor would they discuss the results of the examination of Chung Sin, Leon Ling's former room mate, who has been variously reported to have witnessed the crime, to have aided in roping the trunk and finally merely to have seen the girl's body. There have been hourly reports of clues from all parts of the country but none of them brings the authorities any nearer to the murderer.

What progress has been made with Chung Sin is due as much as anything to the offices of Quon Yick Nam, a Chinese merchant, who volunteered as an interpreter. It is said that he told Chung Sin that no Chinese association would aid him in suppressing the facts or in concealing Leon Ling; that on the other hand, every Chinaman of influence and responsibility in the country felt that the case was bringing disrepute on their race and they all were united with the police in efforts to run down the murder. Chung Sin then talked freely, but that he has not been actually implicated in the crime itself is indicated by the fact that tonight he is still held in the house of detention for witnesses and not in the tombs charged with being an accessory in the murder.

NEGRO LYNCHED IN GEORGIA

Slayer of Prominent White Man—No Resistance to Mob.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Atlanta, Ga., June 23.—News reached here tonight of the lynching at Talbotton, Ga., last night of William Garrocker, a negro, who was placed in the Talbot county jail Tuesday charged with the murder of William Leonard a prominent young white man on Saturday night of last week.

The mob met with practically no resistance when they appeared at the jail. The negro was strung up to a nearby tree, where his body was found today.

STANDARD'S NEW OFFICERS

John D. Jr., and J. A. Moffett Elected Vice Presidents.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 23.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and James A. Moffett were today elected vice presidents of the Standard Oil Compay to succeed W. H. Tilford and H. H. Rogers, W. C. Tagle and H. M. Tilford were elected directors.

The board of directors adopted a resolution of appreciation of H. H. Rogers formerly vice president of the Standard Oil Company and of sympathy with his family in his death on May 19th last.

He was making his arrangements to spend a few weeks at a farmhouse. "What have you in the way of scenery?" he asked. "There's nothin' in the way but a couple o' mountains," replied the farmer. "If it wasn't fer them you could see scenery clear to the county seat."—Philadelphia Record.

"Yes, I know that certain passengers object to tipping on principle; but, speaking for myself, I believe in it," remarked a ruddy faced old man in the corner of a third class smoker. "It is only right to reward courtesy, and I always make it a point of giving the guard of this train sixpence when he comes to see if I'm all right, although I'm only a poor man."

The other passengers, not to be outdone, thereupon dived into their pockets, and when the guard popped his head inside the door a few minutes later he found himself overwhelmed with silver coins.

An hour passed, and the passengers got out one by one until the old man was left facing a spruce commercial traveler, who leaned toward him confidentially and asked him how he could afford to give the guard sixpence every time he took a journey.

"Oh, don't worry yourself about that," responded the old man. "I dare say I shall get it back with interest."

"How will you?"

"The guard is a son of mine!"—London Globe.

Couldn't Fool Him.

A Morris River oysterman attended a band contest one winter night in Morris River. The contestants blew into their great horns as if to burst their lungs. The drummers banged their drums with might and main. Cheeks were red and round like apples. Eyes almost started from their sockets. The oysterman enjoyed it all. But his attention was distracted by a deaf old gentleman who in the pianissimo passages put a large silver ear trumpet to his ear. Whenever he did this the oysterman sneered. And at last his honest hatred of anything approaching sham overcame the man's reserve. He elbowed his way to the deaf old gentleman and said:

"Look here; that don't go here. Everybody knows you can't play that with your ear. Put it away, mister. You can't fool us."—Los Angeles Times.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Asheville, June 22.—Cowee tunnel, near Dillsboro, on the Murphy division of the Southern Railway, caved in last night, catching a freight engine. No one was injured. The passengers were transferred. It was stated this evening that it would probably be ten days before the tunnel would be open.

—Durham, June 22.—Sergeant J. W. T. Aldridge is severely battered up by coming into violent contact with a barbed wire Sunday night. He and Officer Beavers were chasing a negro and the sergeant gave a good race. Finally he ran into the wire and cut his throat so badly that he had to be treated to nine stitches in his cuts. He bled dreadfully and is laid off the force.

—Greensboro, June 22.—Bryan Benton, the 12-year-old brother of James M. Benton ,city editor of the Morning Telegram, was instantly killed by a live wire late this afternoon. The boy was at a lawn party at the Christian church, and with a playmate climbed a tree. His fingers touched an uninsulated electric wire, his leg another, the short-circuit causing him to drop. Physicians say he was dead before he struck the ground. There was a deep burn on his finger and another on his leg.

—Washington Correspondence Charlotte Observer: Former Congressman Gudger, of Asheville, it is predicted, will be nominated by the Democrats to run against Grant. The reason given for this guess is that Gudger has so many kinsmen among the Republican "leaders' 'of the tenth; where blood is stronger than party ties. Gudger, it is claimed, does not care to come back to Washington but in order to redeem the district the Democrats will make him run. It is not exactly a case of leading the horse to water, but almost.

—Fayetteville, June 22.—Miss Annie Eliza Elliott, of this county, died at the Highsmith Hospital in this city Sunday afternoon of heart disease. She was a woman of strong character and purpose, who took a prominent part in the work of her church, being a member of the First Presbyterian church of this city, and leaves a large circle of friends and relatives, though being the last member of her immediate family. Miss Elliott was a direct descendant, from both the paternal and maternal sides, of Sir Farquhard Campbell, Baronet, who immigrated to this country after the battle of Culloden in 1746.

—Durham, June 22.—The officers, with the aid of Mr. James Holmes, this morning thwarted the marriage of Mr. Holmes' daughter, Miss Maggie, and young Jule Thomas as they were eloping from Durham at 3:10 o'clock. The youngsters were seated in the station at 3 o'clock when the train came in. They boarded it quietly for South Carolina where youth is no crime against marriage. They had gone a mile when Officer Williams nabbed them and the boy hiked. The officer and the parent brought the girl—but 16 years old—back to Durham, catching the two near the coal chute in east Durham.

—Washington, D. C., June 22.—A great number of North Carolinians expect to ride into power on lumber. The lumber plank of the Denver convention is the finished product they will mount. Down in Scotland county, one of the counties of the seventh district, the Hon. Hector McLean, Scotchman, politician and farmer, jumped up the other day and popped his heels together three times without touching the ground and shouted: "Hurrah for the Denver platform, Billie Bryan, Joe Daniels, Bob Glenn and Claude Kitchin," which is taken to mean that he will try himself out against Representative Page. Let the music begin for the dancers are ready!

Washington, D. C., June 22.—Former Senator Marion Butler, who for a number of years has made his home at the Portland Apartment House, is preparing to let the contract for a beautiful residence at the corner of Wyoming and Connecticut avenues, where some months ago he purchased three attractive lots. Mrs. Butler is well known and popular in Washington society and is very anxious to have a home of her own where she can entertain her friends and have the comforts of a home-life for her children. She is delighted with the location and the lot and the building will be of the Spanish style of architecture, a style very popular in northwest Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Butler hope to be in their home by early Winter.

—Winston-Salem, June 22.—A daring theft of $100 in bills, from a show case in A. Savery's pawnshop, took place this morning about 9 o'clock. Two negro women, charged with the theft, are locked up, to be tried before recorder tomorrow morning. The women went to the pawnshop and tried to pawn a large Bible this morning, but the proprietor refused a loan on it. He then went out to breakfast. One of the women went to the rear of the shop and engaged Mrs. Savery in conversation. At this time, Mr. Savery suspected the other woman got the money from the showcase which was in front of the building. When arrested shortly after the money was missed one of the women had only $4.46 in her clothing.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheny, Wash. was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

ONE REASON

Some people never know how they stand and never catch an incentive to save money, is that they place what they receive in purses, pockets or bureau drawers, pay their bills at random—and sometimes pay the same bill twice because the receipt is lost.

Thrifty people recognize the fact that the above is a bad plan, hence you will note that the careful business man and the thrifty young man—or woman either—uses a check book in settling accounts.

Open a checking account here. We will furnish all the material free except the money, and you can start the account from $5.00 up.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 23.—The cotton market continued very active and strong today with all the new crop months making new high records for the season. The close was steady at a net advance of 10 to 14 points. The opening was firm at an advance of 1 to 13 points on a renewal of yesterday's buying movement, which was encouraged by firm cables, and private reports of heavy precipitation and unfavorable crop conditions in the central belt. After selling about 13 to 17 points net higher, the market reached 7 or 8 points under heavy realizing, but demand was general with commission houses heavy buyers, and a little later the market rallied again selling at the highest point of the day during the late trading when July touched 11.25 or within one point of the previous best price while October sold at 11.33 and December at 11.38 a net gain of 14 to 21 points on the general list. The close was a little off from the top under realizating but demand continued good and the undertone of the market evidenced the presence of large buying orders on a scale down.

Beyond the rains reported in Eastern and Central sections of the belt and bullish spot market advices there seemed nothing fresh in the situation to create the broadening demand noted, but the trade seems to be looking forward to a bullish July condition report from the government, while the upward movement is accompanied by no indication of pressure from actual supplies. Private cables received today claimed that Russia had used up its native crop and was buying American cotton in Bremen and Liverpool. General rains reported in Texas were considered beneficial, but many reports were received claiming serious conditions in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi and Arkansas.

Receipts at the ports today were 10,895 bales against 3,916 last week and 9,937 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 33,540 last week and 43,422 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 983 bales against 3,076 last year and at Houston 567 bales against 1,763 last year.

Spot cotton closed quiet 15 points higher; middling uplands 11.75; middling gulf 12.00; no sales.

Futures opened firm and closed steady.

THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 23.—The dry goods market rules strong. Hosiery and underwear for Spring are being taken freely. Dress goods of a staple character for Fall are being ordered freely from jobbers by cutters and other large users. Cotton goods continue strong, advances being named on lines of ticketed bleached goods. Discounts have been shortened 7 1-2 per cent. on cotton duck. Cotton yarns are firm but trading is still light.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, June 23.—The intense dullness of today's stock market served to obscure the importance of the price movements which were remarkable in several cases. The general firmness of the markets tone was influenced by sympathy with the notable strength in these special stocks, but more distinctly by the technical factors in the position. Principal of these was the building up of a short interest which proved to possess little determination in maintaining their position with signs of resstance to the downward course of prices. Covering of shorts made up an important part of the day's demand. The copper industrials were affected by large covering of shorts in London which induced a sharp upward reaction from the severe depression from which they have suffered in that market. Union Pacific preferred moved up to a record price. Rumors of an intention to retire the stock were given to account for its rise.

The Union Pacific rumors revived consideration of various other deal rumors. This was of effect in advancing Wabash preferred, Reading, New York Central, Atchison and others which have been the subject of deal rumors. A good deal of discussion was heard of the movement to secure the enactment of the corporation earnings tax and Washington reports that statements of earnings by the corporations were to furnish the basis for the tax were claimed as promise of softening of the terms which were feared at first of the powers of inquisition into corporations to go with the proposed law.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value were $3,359,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today were 536,900 shares.

FLORIDA RECTOR DROWNED.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

St. Augustine, Fla., June 23.—Rev. Father Buckley, assistant rector of the Cathedral in this city, was drowned at South Beach this afternoon while in surf bathing. Rev. Buckley, together with Father Aloysus, of St. Louis College, Fabran Paffa, Eddie Freybere, wen to the beach and were joined by Rev. Ray, of Tampa. Rev. Buckley ventured too far out and called for help, Rev. Ray going to his assistance. Together they battled with the waves until both became exhausted when they separated. Jack Spencer went to Rev. Ray's assistance pulling him ashore and by this time Rev. Buckley had sunk from view.

Rev. Buckley was ordained about one year ago and was a native of Ireland. He was in charge of the parish at Tallahassee, Fla., but about three months ago was transferred to St. Augustine. The body was not recovered.

SHOT TWO AND SELF.

Puyear Killed Brother-in-law, Injured Wife, Took Own Life.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Columbus, O., June 23.—William Reed Puyear, assistant electrical engineer at the Ohio State University, today shot and killed his brother-in-law, Fred West, fatally shot his wife, and then rushed to the attic while the police were after him and sent a bullet into his brain. The tragedy resulted from a quarrel. Puyear made accusations against his wife and she told her brother, West.

Penn—I don't see how you can call Mr. Meter a genius. His poems certainly do not show it. Brushe—No, but the fact that he sells them does.

Trouble at Raleigh.

Raleigh, N. C., June 23.—Because Fayetteville refused to play after Manager Moss and Catcher Sullivan had been put out of the game by Umpire McLaughlin for kicking against rulings, the game was declared forfeited to Raleigh 9 to 0, this afternoon. This in the first inning. Five hundred spectators were given rain checks. The trouble came with Raleigh at bat when Hart stole third. Manager Moss insisted that he was not safe, disputing with the umpire who ordered him off the field. Then Sullivan took up the protest and made a move to strike the umpire. Constable Bynum interfered. Sullivan was ordered off the field and Fayetteville refused to continue the game. Fayetteville's third baseman admits that Hart was safe, according to best information here.

Fast at Goldsboro.

Goldsboro, N. C., June 23.—Goldsboro won from Rocky Mount here today in 70 minutes, score two to nothing. Only 29 men faced Stoehr, who pitched a fine game, walking none, and allowing but four scattered hits. Score:

Goldsboro .....010 001 00x—2 4 2
Rocky Mount ...000 000 000—0 4 6

IN MEMORIAM.

Get the hook!

Raw! Raw! Raw!

"Help us to get right."

Come on with the lachrymal matter—it's due.

Ferrall presided over the obsequies with infinite ease.

"Clear the track, Fayetteville! This is what we call tobogganing 'em some few!"

This business of losing every day has now reached the stage where it's getting laborious.

Why do they always work in that poor little lonesome orphan run? It doesn't help things any.

One time yesterday it looked like the Weather Man would save us from another rout; but you could soon see that wasn't a safe bet.

Missed the Observer 'Boosts' yesterday. On account of improvements going on that sheet is limited as to space, though we do hope things will soon be normal so we can see the dopist in action again.

Levy was liberality personified when it came to exercising the Tobacconists, strolling five of them along the gutter to the first elbow, one of whom ambled at a critical period and scored the last of the winning tallies.

As we remarked yesterday, the Sailors hit the ball for safe bases every little while, but there they were crusoed while the following batters lined up and went through an exhibition of club swinging for the delectation of the crowd.

Wilmington earned six hits off Wilson's mounder, but it's not clustering them that loses the games. A team can total any amount of swats per game, although if they're not in covey style the men had just as well be scouring knives.

Know it is not considered good form to re-hash bad news, but we can't help repeating that the whole thing happened, as has occurred oft before, by the Sailors' inability to shine with the stick at opportune moments.

The Raleigh Times also made a grievous blunder in repeating the story about Howard handing out ten safeties in Monday's game. Y'see, Brother, all of us are liable to mistakes; and this about trumps those pertinent remarks about our percentage error the other morning.

With the team she has, and playing the game it is, the slim attendance at the Wilson park is a mystery. If they're tired of winning so much, why not drop an affair now and then—anything to help the attendance. The league can't live on the crowds they've been turning out.

The Sailor lads drifted in on a late train last night and will be in good trim to meet Goldsboro at the park this afternoon. It will be of interest to know that 100 devotees of the sport in Wilmington are being interested in $5 subscriptions each, the $500 to be used in the purchase of two fast players yet to be selected and loaned to the Wilmington team. The subscriptions had reached something like $300 last night.

We're not a logician, but we really can't see what Sexton has to do but watch the players' bench to see that somebody doesn't run away with it. Here we've actually run in two southpaws on consecutive days, when the first one was hammered freely, and Sexton kicking sand around the press stand, wondering whether his job is to look pleasant, or deal out the brand of speeders deliverable under his trademark. Don't everybody speak at once.

of the session there has been a decided contest over the lumber rate, and one of the hardest fights made by the Northwestern Senators had been for free lumber. In the House the reformers succeeded in reducing the Dingley law rate from $2 to $1.

Of the affirmative votes on the McCumber amendment only ten were cast by Democrats, as follows: Bankhead, Clay, Davis, Gore, Hughes, Johnston, McLaurin, Overman, Paynter and Tillman. The Republicans who cast their votes in support of the amendment, were: Beveridge, Bristow, Brown, Burkett, Burton, Carter, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Curtis, Gamble, LaFollette, McCumber and Nelson. The Democrats voting against the amendment were: Bacon, Bailey, Chamberlain, Fletcher, Foster, Martin, Money, Simmons, Smith (Maryland), Taliaferro and Taylor.

Insisting that the differentials on planed or finished lumber provided by the finance committee were unnecessarily high, Mr. McCumber offered an amendment reducing them 33 1-3 per cent. and reducing the duty on sawed lumber to $1.25 a thousand feet.

Mr. Aldrich had read a letter from a Vermont saw mill owner showing that the mills charged four times as much to tongue and groove and plane a board on four sides as to plane it on one side.

Jumping quickly to his feet Senator Tillman denied that such a difference of cost could exist.

"Anybody who has ever been in a saw mill," he declared, "knows that." He vociferously chided the Rhode Island Senator, who, he insisted, was the "whole Senate," for not promptly passing the tariff bill.

As Mr. Aldrich protested that he wished to vote as soon as possible, the South Carolinian in apologetic manner for taking up any time in debate, added:

"When the Senator makes a statement like that I cannot sit here like an ass as if I agreed with it when I know it is not true."

Mr. McCumber's amendment was rejected 30 to 49.

The vote was then taken on the main proposition, the finance committee's amendment placing a duty of $1.50 on sawed lumber with differentials on finished lumber. The committee won 50 to 28.

By amendments offered by Mr. Aldrich and adopted, the duty on clapboards was increased from $1 to $1.50 per 1,000; on slats from 20 to 25 cents per 1,000, and on shingles from 30 to 50 cents.

The entire schedule relating to wood and manufactures of wood was then agreed to.

After a debate extending over about four hours' time, the Taliaferro amendment was adopted 34 to 30. This was a defeat for the finance committee, but the amendment was not strenuously resisted by the committee and several of its members voted for it.

The close of the day, as well as the beginning of it presented its surprise in the completion of the coal schedule. It had been expected that this schedule would be debated at great length, but it was passed after little more than an hour's discussion. A new schedule was presented by Mr. Aldrich as chairman of the finance committee, reducing the House rate on bituminous coal from 67 cents per ton to 60 cents and eliminating the House reciprocity clause. Numerous attempts were made to reduce the rate and there was one effort to obtain free coal, but all were voted down and the committee's scale retained.

The Senate late today adopted an amendment suggested by the finance committee reducing the tariff on coal from 67 cents per ton to 60 cents and striking out the House provision for reciprocity.

The Senate adjourned at 7 o'clock.
